MESSAGE TO WOMEN

PROGRAM FOR "WOMAN'S DAY" INCLUDES STIRRING CALL TO SERVICE

The beautiful program provided for the "Woman's Day" meeting at Masonic Temple Wednesday afternoon deserved a much larger audience than came out to hear it. As explained by Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, President of the District Federation of Womens' Clubs, who presided, the fact that the committee had but three days in which to advertise it, coupled with the distractions of Christmas and the Red Cross drive, probably accounted for the presence of any vacant chairs.

The vocal selections contributed by Mrs. Ina Ryder and Miss Eleanor Coburn, of Los Angeles, delighted their hearers and evoked warm applause. Their opening duet was a beautiful Christmas hymn. Then Mrs. Ryder, who has a soprano voice of wonderful volume, sang as a solo "The Nightingale." Miss Coburn sang most charmingly a Southern Lullaby and "Captain," a delightful child song. These ladies were from the Los Angeles Music Settlement.

In the intervals between these numbers the chairman invited to the platform Dr. Jessie Russell, State President of the Congress of Mothers, Mrs. W. W. Ramsay, President of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, and Mrs. Arthur Brown, District President of the Parent-Teacher Association.

Red Cross Demonstration

Twelve members of the class in surgical dressings which has been under the instruction of Mrs. Eva Tuft, were present, garbed in their Red Cross uniforms, and Mrs. Tuft gave an interesting demonstration of their work, illustrating with sample bandages and dressings made by class members. She read an extract from Major Murphy on the French front to Harvey D. Gibson, manager of the Pacific Coast Division of the Red Cross in which he said:

"The Red Cross has the direct responsibility of supplying us with surgical dressings, and nothing in the whole situation here is equally important. Red Cross standard dressings in millions must be sent on with all possible speed. If this is not done and done immediately, serious calamity and national disgrace is inevitable. The American women who compose the Red Cross chapters should prepare with all the enthusiasm and speed possible the dressings which may mean life or death to our men."

Henry Warnack

The chief speaker of the afternoon, Henry Warnack, who was to talk on "Women's Work in the War," was then introduced. It was a poet's talk, as daintily beautiful as bubbles tossed upon the air, a rainbow in each one. Yet it was serious too, in its appeal to women to forget "me and mine" and become world mothers for the healing of the nations. He said in part:

"This war would be easier to understand if it were near. If it were some terrible disaster in a near-by city like desolated Havana, how swift we would be to send train loads of supplies, to send nurses, food, medicines, and yet over there in France or Italy, on every field in this sad conflict, the wounded are our wounded, the dead are our dead. * * This is our work because we are citizens of the country and now we are becoming citizens of the world. It is our work because it is a step toward that federation of men of which we have all so long dreamed. Only by the realization of that federation of men can we approach the thing the angels sang about, 'Glory to God in the highest, on Earth Peace, Good Will toward Men,' and this federation is worth living for, worth dying for. This is your work because it is motherhood and you are human, because it is federation and you are citizens. * * The tender and compassionate Christ who was the brother and friend of man, has no other way of going with his healing upon those battlefields except through you and it is his hand on your heart that lets you lay healing upon those foreheads in their pain.

"When our boys come back there will be many an empty sleeve and many a crutch and we shall touch them with reverence and we will not be able to look at them without a shaft of pain and condemnation in our hearts if through the Red Cross we have not tried to help."

Mrs. Sohier

Mrs. Walter Sohier, from the Speakers' Bureau of the Los Angeles Red Cross Chapter, who followed Mr. Warnack said:

"We must first realize that war is no longer an institution in which a few highly trained men are involved. that time is past. Modern warfare calls for the enlistment of every man,

DR. WILLISFORD LEAVES

GLENDALE PASTOR GOES TO TAKE UP Y. M. C. A. WORK IN FRANCE

Dr. E. H. Willisford, pastor of the First Congregational church, will leave next Wednesday, December 26, for New York City and will sail at once from some Atlantic port for France to engage in Y. M. C. A. war work.

Dr. Willisford had expected to spend a month in intensive training in Chicago, and then to receive his appointment to some American camp. The commission for over-seas work speaks well for Dr. Willisford's standing and ability. The usual plan is for men to spend several months in camp work in this country and the over-seas work is a promotion gained from that experience. When asked the nature of his work, Dr. Willisford replied: "I expect to be everything from the janitor of the hut to the spiritual adviser of the men. I consider this a glorious opportunity to do service."

Dr. Willisford will conduct his last service before leaving next Sunday morning. In the evening the choir will present the beautiful cantata, "Star of Bethlehem."

A PLEASANT REUNION

On Tuesday evening Pastor Vernon H. Cowsert had the joy of entertaining some of his old parishioners, at the pastorium, 1450 Pioneer Drive, in the persons of W. B. Riggs, a prominent business man of Belleville, Canada, and his son Dr. Lester D. Riggs, and wife, of Valentine, Arizona. Dr. Riggs is so taken with California that he expects to make this his permanent home, when his present contract with the Government expires next summer, and Mr. Cowsert is hoping he may decide in favor of Glendale. W. B. Riggs' oldest son, Leo Riggs, is a very famous musician who presides at the great organ of the Hotel Astor, New York City, and draws the largest salary of any organist on the continent. It is thought that when the doctor settles down here, the whole family, who are all talented musicians, may also be coaxed to this sunny California clime.

AFFAIRS IN WASHINGTON

Dr. J. E. Whytock recently received a letter from his son Roslyn, who is now employed in the office of the Chief of Staff of the War Department at Washington. He was formerly Washington correspondent of the New York World and later went abroad as a correspondent. He returned home on the same ship as did Ambassador Gerard. We are permitted to make the following extracts from the letter:

"I have been on duty here for three weeks, but expect in a day or so to be ordered to New York. Naturally I am anxious to get abroad and hope that my wish will be carried out. I am out of the newspaper business during the war of course. My entire time and energy are given to the army. I am now on special work under our general staff and will likely be kept on this work. This is going to be a long hard war and we must all do our duty. There are plenty of slackers about the country, as you know. I was sorry to be separated from Brother Norman, but he will have Mr. Kingsley with him. Norman is a mighty fine soldier and I am proud of him. I know he will give a good account of himself. When I shook hands with him in parting on Main street in Spartanburg, he saluted like a soldier, turned and walked away without looking back. I was quite affected, for I can't get over thinking of him as the baby of the family."

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Friday. Northwesterly winds.

MEXICAN NEUTRALITY VIOLATED

MEXICAN OFFICIALS IN WASHINGTON SEEK TO FORCE INVESTIGATION OF TEUTON INTRIGUE IN MEXICO

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, December 20.—Germany is charged with a violation of Mexican neutrality by Mexican officials here today who are seeking to force a government investigation of Teutonic intrigue in Mexico. The alleged violation occurred through Minister von Eckhardt, it is said. It is also charged that between September, 1916, and December, 1917, Germany paid Rafael Martinez more than 3,000,000 pesos for German propaganda in Mexico.

ROB SUMMIT, ILLINOIS, BANK

BURGLARS DRILL THROUGH TWELVE-INCH WALL OF VAULT AND ESCAPE WITH $41,000

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, December 20.—Drilling through 12-inch steel, burglars penetrated the vault of the Summit State Bank at Summit, Ill., last night and escaped with $41,000 in cash. . The bandits overlooked $30,000 more.

BRITISH AIRMEN IN RAID

MAKE SUCCESSFUL ATTACK ON GERMAN MUNITIONS WORKS AT BRUGES AND ON AERODROME

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, December 20.—British naval aviators scored a direct hit on the munitions works at Bruges, which is held by Germany, Tuesday night, the Admiralty announced today. A great fire was noted after the attack. Several hits were scored also on the sheds of the Vlisssegham aerodrome.

LINER DESTROYS SUBMARINE

GEN. HUGH SCOTT COMPLIMENTS AMERICAN GUN CREW ON MARKSMANSHIP AS U-BOAT SINKS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

AN ATLANTIC PORT, December 20.—The forward gun of an American liner arriving here today destroyed a German submarine when only one day out of a British port, according to passengers on the liner. Gen. Hugh Scott, who was a passenger on the boat, is said to have stood behind the gun crew and complimented them on their marksmanship as the submarine sank.

ASK ALLIES TO JOIN IN PEACE MOVEMENT

LEON TROTSKY, BOLSHEVIKI FOREIGN MINISTER, SAYS HISTORY WILL CONDONE A SEPARATE PEACE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

STOCKHOLM, December 20.—The Russian Bolsheviki give the Allies two months to join in the general peace, according to the speech of Leon Trotsky, foreign minister, made public here today. "We do not promise not to conclude a separate peace," he said. "We are not able to make a ten years' war in the interest of the French Bourse and English Imperialism. History will condone a separate peace."

LLOYD-GEORGE SUMS UP SUCCESSES

IS OPTIMISTIC TOWARD SUBMARINE SITUATION AND SAYS FOOD CONDITIONS ARE PROMISING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, December 20.—The number of German submarines being sunk is increasing, Lloyd-George announced in the House of Commons today. He views the U-boat situation optimistically. He asserts that although the tonnage has been reduced 20 per cent, the imports for 1917 will be six per cent more than in 1916.

"The success in Palestine," he continued, "will affect the world's history." "America's entry into the war and the establishment of the Versailles council will loom large in the future." "The food situation is promising."

"On the other hand," he said, "Germany has lost 100,000 prisoners, valuable positions and hundreds of guns. Germany's only success of the year was due to a surprise which is now under investigation," he said, referring to the Cambrai set-back.

CROWDER ADVISES REGISTERED MEN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, December 20.—Draft registrants who can't get their questionnaires returned to the local boards within the seven-day limit are advised by Provost Marshal-General Crowder to write the local boards immediately, explaining the circumstances. The boards have been instructed to be reasonable.

CHRISTMAS GOODIES

MRS. HAZZARD SHOWS THEY ARE COMPATIBLE WITH FOOD CONSERVATION

An audience composed of forty or fifty women gathered in the Council Chamber of the City Hall Wednesday morning to hear the Christmas talk of Mrs. Hazzard, who is a chairman and demonstrator for the California Women's Committee of the Councils of National and State Defense. Her field covers Santa Barbara and Los Angeles counties, a big district containing many and important towns. Glendale has been very fortunate in securing her for the series of lectures she has given. She will not be in our city again until after New Years, when it is possible some evening lectures will be arranged which can be attended by business men and women who are interested, and the teachers in our public schools.

At the Wednesday morning lecture she specialized on Christmas dainties which are toothsome and which can be compounded with the minimum of sugar and fat. These included Popcorn Cakes, Deviled Raisins and Fruit Bars. She also gave a recipe for Potato Fondant which can be used as a foundation for candies.

The reporter had an opportunity to taste the Popcorn Cakes which were delicious enough to create a very strong appetite for more. Ladies who witnessed the whole demonstration said the other products were just as good. At the close of the lecture Mrs. Hazzard distributed the recipes demonstrated and they are given herewith for the profit of readers of the Evening News. Mrs. Hazzard was assisted by Mrs. A. A. Barton, local chairman of the County Council of Defense, and by Miss Eula Richardson, both of whom are intelligent, enthusiastic promoters of food conservation and who will gladly furnish information to any inquirer.

Fruit Bars

Equal parts dried figs, nuts, raisins; put through the meat grinder, then blend with a small amount of strained honey and lemon juice. Pack solidly on a greased pan. Press; let stand for a while, then cut into squares, roll in pulverized sugar or corn starch.

The lemon juice may be omitted and cinnamon, cloves and allspice used in small amounts.

Potato Fondant

½ cup mashed potato that has been put through a fine sieve.
2 cupfuls sugar.
2-3 cupfuls milk.

Cook slowly until of the soft ball stage. Cool on an oiled platter or marble slab. Knead until smooth.

Be sure to use a very fine sieve for the potato, or the results will not be satisfactory. This fondant may be used as a foundation for candies.

Plum Pudding

1 tablespoon thinly sliced citron,
6 raisins,
1 fig cut fine,

Piece potato fondant, size of an egg,

Dash of cinnamon.

Roll into balls. Let dry on oiled paper.

Take another piece of fondant, add a little vanilla, work until creamy. Flatten the fondant, place in the center of the plum pudding, cover it over with the fondant. Roll gently until a ball is formed.

Salted Almonds

Blanch ¼ pound of almonds, dry on towel. Into a small saucepan put 1-3 cup olive oil. When hot put in a quarter of the almonds, stirring to keep them constantly in motion, until a delicate brown. Remove with skimmer, taking up as little oil as possible. Drain on soft paper, salt. Repeat until all the nuts are fried. Re-heat the oil carefully. Other oils may be used. Nutcoa is fine.

Salted Peanuts

Use peanuts which have not been roasted. Fry same as almonds. Pecans may be fried and salted, too, but do not leave in the fat too long.

Pop Corn Cakes

1 cup pop corn,
1 cup sugar,
½ teaspoon salt,
1 cup flour,
1 cup corn meal,
1 cup washed and seeded raisins,
½ teaspoon nutmeg,
3 teaspoons baking powder,
6 tablespoons Crisco,
4 tablespoons milk,
1 egg (well beaten.)

Mix in the order given. Drop on greased shallow pans. One-third cup un-popped corn will make about 1 quart popped corn. 1 cup finely cut nut meats may be used instead of Crisco. Will make about 48 cakes.

Deviled Raisins

Cook cleaned raisins in hot olive oil until plump. Drain on soft paper. Season with salt and paprika.

MEMENTO OF PALESTINE

M. B. HARTMANN RECALLS THE DAYS HE SPENT IN THE HOLY LAND

Members of the staff of the Glendale Evening News were indebted to Maurice B. Hartman for the opportunity Wednesday of inspecting a beautiful relief map of the Holy Land which is among his most highly prized possessions. It conveys quite a definite idea of Palestine, which is a little country, no wider than the distance from here to Riverside, and but 150 miles in length. Mr. Hartman pointed out the Sea of Gallilee in which he has fished, and the Dead Sea in which he has laved his hand. The map indicates the enclosing walls which surround Jerusalem and shows Mount Moriah and Mount Zion where the Church of the Holy Sepulcher stands. According to this morning's dispatches, before surrendering to the British the Turks plundered this church, carrying away its treasures valued at millions of dollars, and sending to Berlin the church's celebrated ostensory of brilliants. It had remained unmolested heretofore during all the centuries of Moslem occupation of Jerusalem. Mr. Hartman is one of those who doubt the authenticity of the Church of the Holy Sepulcher as the actual site of the tomb of Christ. He inclines to the opinion of General Gordon that the tomb was outside the city walls to the Northwest, near the Damascus Gate. He argues that Christ, having been condemned as a malefactor, would not have been granted burial within the city walls.

To the southwest, also outside the walls of Jerusalem, is the tomb of David.

The map is a memento of travel which brings freshly to his mind the incidents and scenes of a wonderful tour of the Holy Land which is a precious memory.

FLAG POLE CEREMONIES

The municipal flag pole is in place. At the junction of Broadway and Brand boulevards it rears its white shaft tipped with a glittering golden ball, above the street. Below, on a substantial platform surrounding the corner where the P. E. building stands, seats will be placed for those unable to stand who wish to view the impressive flag raising ceremonies in comfort. The fee of five cents, which will be charged for these seats will go to the treasury of the local Red Cross Chapter and will be collected by a group of pretty girls including Mildred Whitaker, Carol Foss, Franc Kent, Mina Smith and Margaret McPherson. High School boys have also promised to help.

There at 2:30 o'clock a beautiful national flag measuring 8 by 12 feet will be raised and just below Old Glory will be the Red Cross emblem of equal size, to testify to all the world of traffic that Glendale is patriotic and has given herself to service for her country and the wrold.

THE FRUITS OF ADVERTISING

Observing the stock of paints at the Glendale Hardware Company's store the reporter asked Mr. Webb, the manager, whether his firm was pushing the sale of paints much. "No," he replied with a smile, "they are pushing us." "That is decidedly cheering," the reporter ventured. "To what do you attribute the good luck?" "We think it is due to our vigorous advertising campaign," he answered "and", he continued, "to the fact that people have grown tired of waiting for the price of paint to decline and are buying now before it goes up again. We certainly have no cause to complain about our trade in paints."

PIONEER TELEGRAPHERS

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Reese, who four or five years ago resided for several months on Louise street near the Baptist church, have returned to Glendale after having lived in Los Angeles during the interval. They are now located on Oak street west of Pacific, just outside the city limits.

Mr. and Mrs. Reese are both old time telegraphers, he having been in the employ of the Western Union Telegraph Company for the greater part of the past fifty years, Mrs. Reese being one of the first women telegraphers in the United States to learn telegraphy by sound. Mrs. Reese has not been in practice for several years, and Mr. Reese expects soon to be retired by the company on a pension. He was a telegraph operator in Washington at the time President Lincoln was assassinated, and was one of the first operators employed by the Trans-Atlantic Cable Company when the cable was first landed in New Foundland at Canso.

WANTED: A STABILIZER

If it is true that the world has never had any considerable surplus of food materials, and that great populations are ever and again exposed to famine or near famine; if it is true that in almost every year great quantities of food products spoil for lack of market or transportation, why don't we stop it?

If it is true that in one year the market is glutted and prices for farm produce fall below the profit line, and that a few months later there is a shortage with prices to the consumer nearer the prohibitive, why don't we stop it? Streams flood high in the spring, but run low when the water is most needed. The irrigation engineer, therefore, provides a storage reservoir for the flood waters and is thereby able to use them when and where he needs, and at his leisure and to his profit. The engineer artificially regulates the flow of his streams. Why couldn't that be done with food products? If properly done, why wouldn't that stabilize production and consumption and insure uniform and dependable profits for the producer and uniform and reasonable costs for the consumer?

Does any one know a statesman who can spare the time to give studious attention to such matters?—Country Gentleman.

In this period of general economy and of war gardening, the leaves that fall from our city trees should not be burned. A pile of dry leaves makes a pretty bonfire, but the same pile of leaves put where the wind will not scatter them, weighted with a few shovels of earth thrown over them if that is necessary, will keep until next spring, when fertilizers are needed for the garden. Those who intend to plant gardens next spring will do well to conserve the leaves they rake from their own lawns, or any leaves anyone will allow them to rake up and cart away.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

NOT ALLOWED TO FLY

Jesse E. Smith, the Ford agent, has been disappointed in his hope of being accepted as a flier. He has been advised that he is a year too old. Uncle Sam draws the line at about 26 years. It may be possible for him to secure a commission as a non-flying officer, however. These non-flying officers take charge of certain squads and in some instances serve as the superior officers of the fliers. They have charge of what is termed the "ground work," looking after supplies for the flying officers and for equipment of air ships. Their rank is somewhat similar to that of the commissary or quartermaster.

Mr. Smith is not likely to be called on the regular original conscript list for some time as there are in the neighborhood of 500 names ahead of his; but the classification under the Questionnaire may alter conditions. It will probably put him in the third class of the second division.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO REGISTRANTS

Under jurisdiction of Local Exemption Board District No. 7, whose order numbers are between No. 418 and No. 519, inclusive.

There has this day been mailed to you a questionnaire which you are required by law to execute and return within seven days from date hereof.

Failure to do so constitutes a misdemeanor punishable by not to exceed one year's imprisonment; and such failure may also deprive you of valuable rights and result in your immediate induction into military service and trial by court-martial.

Dated December 20, 1917.

F. D. LANTERMAN,
Member of Local Board.

Willis—What sort of a man is he?

Gillis—Well, if he had a country estate he'd have the katydids saying "Katy done it," before a week was up.

STILL SLOW TO REGISTER

At the headquarters in the Chamber of Commerce. Mattison B. Jones and F. D. Lanterman, members of the Exemption Board were closely occupied this morning and the entire office force including members of the legal advisory board were busy as bees.

The responses are not coming in rapidly enough to satisfy Mr. Lanterman, who sees congestion looming large upon the horizon unless the recipients of Questionnaires present themselves more promptly. Up to last night, out of 450 Questionnaires sent out, 28 had been completed and filed with the board. The majority of the registrants who visit the headquarters come at night after the day's employment is over. Those who want the help of the legal advisers whom the government has provided, should lose no time in presenting themselves. So says Mr. Lanterman.

FEDERAL AID FOR ROADS

Reporting on the operation of the new Federal aid road act, the Secretary states that the most significant results thus far have been the enactment by a number of State legislatures of effective road laws. All the States have assented to the provisions of the act—42 by their legislatures and 6 by their governors. Under the provisions of the act 40 states have submitted 183 projects involving a total of approximately 1,730 miles. Of this number 139, embracing 1,182 miles, and calling for an estimated expenditure, including Federal State and local funds, of $7,947,114.50, have been approved. These projects involve Federal funds to the extent of $3,455,573.76 or 23.75 per cent of the total allotment, $14,550,000 to the various States for the fiscal years 1917 and 1918. Six projects covering 40 miles have been disapproved. Agreements have been entered into or are in the course of preparation in the case of 34 projects aggregating 197.74 miles and involving $990,600.84 of Federal funds and a total of $2,225,944.74.

NOTICE OF CHANGE OF GRADE

Public notice is hereby given that on Tuesday the 11th day of December, 1917, the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale, did at its meeting on said day adopt Resolution No. 974, declaring its intention to change and establish the grade on a portion of Broadway in said City. Reference is hereby made to Resolution No. 974, for further particulars for said change of grade.

T. W. WATSON,

City Manager, Ex-Officio Street Superintendent of the City of Glendale. 88t6

Personals

Mr. McGowan, the movie director, has moved into the Venske house at 131 South Louise street.

Mrs. Emma Hyde, son Francis and daughter Dorothy, went to San Diego this morning to spent the holidays.

Miss Brown, of Colton, is the guest of Mrs. Wesley Bullis, of Tropico. They are old friends and Miss Brown has visited Tropico so many times that she feels quite at home there.

The hearts of J. F. Hardin and family, much as they like Glendale, are still true to their earlier home in Eagle Rock. They will spend their Christmas, however, in Boyle Heights with Mr. Hardin's cousin.

Phyllis Kimlin, the three-year-old daughter of Clarence E. Kimlin, manager of the Glendale Sanitarium, has been quite ill, but is now so far recovered that her parents are no longer in anxiety about her.

The annual Christmas party for the children of members, will be given this Thursday afternoon by the Tropico Thursday Afternoon Club at the home of the chairman of the day, Mrs. L. E. Richardson, 560 South Brand boulevard.

S. C. Andrews and wife and little babe returned recently from Newton, Illinois, and are now living at Third and Glendale avenue. Mr. Andrews was formerly with the Glendale Paint and Paper company. His wife was Miss Hazel Royce.

Mrs. Glen Craig, of Tropico, has had the pleasure of a flying visit from her cousin, Ralph Waters, of Pasadent, who has been driving an ambulance on the French front and is at home on a short furlough. He will probably have to return to New York in a few days.

The beautiful Christmas edition of "Tidings," the big Catholic magazine published in Los Angeles, contains a fine two-column write-up of Glendale by Walt Le Noir Church. As it has a large circulation it should prove a good advertisement of our city.

Mrs. Frank W. Chambers, of 860 South Glendale avenue, is having the great pleasure of entertaining her mother, Mrs. George Cook, of Naramata, B. C., who reached here Tuesday morning and expects to spend the winter in Glendale. It is her first visit to California.

Letters from Tennessee received this week by Glendale residents from relatives there, tell of serious winter conditions. The snow is drifted to a depth of 3 to 5 feet, mail carriers cannot make their routes, much stock has frozen to death and farming people are cooped up in their homes where they have to feed the fires constantly to keep warm.

One of the guests at the lecture given by Mrs. Hazzard at the City Hall Wednesday was Miss Louise Eubanks, Chairman under the State Council of Defense of a territory which included the counties of Contra Costa, Monterey, San Benito, San Mateo, Santa Cruz. She is here for a few days' council with Mrs. Woodworth, Chairman for Riverside county, and with Mrs. Hazzard, whose territory embraces Santa Barbara and Los Angeles counties. She quotes Mr. Hoover's slogan as: "Production, Conservation and Utilization."

The Nash Grocery company, 206 S. Brand, reports a highly satisfactory business. They are specializing just now on Christmas trees and Christmas candies, but still giving full attention to the supplying of the everyday needs of their numerous customers. We bespeak a careful reading of their ad in this issue.

Friends of Dwight Stephenson are still awaiting definite news of his movements. According to Mattison B. Jones, with whom he was associated in law work, he is still at American Lake but has advised his friends to forward no more mail to him there until they receive further instructions as his time of departure is uncertain as well as the place to which he will go.

RED CROSS APPEALS

Employes of the Glendale Laundry will be addressed Friday at a quarter to twelve by Doctor Henry Harrower who will make a strong appeal for renewal of memberships and active cooperation in the work of the Red Cross. Men and women of every class and occupation are lining up for this practical service behind the fighting lines which is to win the war, and it is certain that the Glendale Laundry workers will not fall behind in this great movement, particularly when they have the inspiration and spur of such a speech as the Doctor is sure to make.

At two o'clock the Doctor will speak again at the Glendale Sanitarium in the same cause.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS ELECTS OFFICERS

The regular monthly business meeting of the Young Business Men's Bible Class of the First Methodist church was held Wednesday night at the home of C. E. Case, 105 South Maryland avenue. Much business was transacted and plans outlined for the work of the class for the coming year.

This meeting being the semi-annual election, the following officers were elected for the ensuing six months:

President, W. A. Goss;

First Vice President, Charles Starkey;

Second Vice President, C. E. Case;

Third Vice President, F. W. Kille;

Secretary, H. O. Melone;

Treasurer, Delos Jones.

At the conclusion of the business session, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served by Mrs. Case, assisted by Mrs. Charles Erling.

WARNS AGAINST FIRE

Editor News:

Please call the attention of your readers to the fact that in preparing for Christmas celebrations in their homes, they should use non-inflammable decorations, and should always see that the Christmas tree is securely set, so that children in reaching for things cannot tip it over. Instead of cotton to represent snow, asbestos fibre should be used, and every precaution should be taken to avoid fire.

The Board of Fire Underwriters is publishing a similar warning, and call attention to the fact that if the fire hazard is materially increased, the companies might, under the law, refuse to pay a fire loss unless they are previously notified of such increased hazard.

DEATH OF EDWARD TALMAGE IJAMF

Edward Talmage Ijamf passed away at Burbank December 17th. His business as telephone repair operator has caused frequent changes of residence and he had lived off and on in Glendale and in Whittier as well as Burbank, for considerable periods. He was seventy-one years of age and hardening of the arteries was the cause of death. A devoted wife, Elizabeth Ijamf, is left to mourn his loss. Services will be held this (Thursday) afternoon in the Chapel of the Whittier Cemetery at 2:30 o'clock, Covern, Letton & Frey having charge. The pastor of the Whittier Presbyterian church will officiate. The deceased was a native of Ohio, but had been a resident of California for the past fifteen years.

IT WAS SOME GOOSE

Mrs. F. D. Silvius, of 1456 W. Colorado, received a large dressed goose from her daughter in New Plymouth, Idaho, as a Christmas present, Tuesday, and knowing it could not well be kept until next week, had it cooked and served to some invited guests Wednesday evening. There were present Mrs. Jennie Krukow and two children, of 517 Jackson; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence DeLane, of W. Fifth street, and Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Long, of Los Angeles. There was music and dancing later in the evening and all departed exclaiming, "That sure was some Christmas goose."

ELECTRICAL FLASHING

When it comes to real brilliancy in electrical display in Glendale, the Monarch Company on Brand boulevard, is taking first place. Proprietor H. M. Butts says his activities in that line have just been fairly well started. Great things in the future are looked for.

A life of contentment is rare because a life of contemplation is rare.

BUSINESS CONDITIONS IMPROVE

Latest news from Washington to the effect that any radical curtailment of the motor car industry is unlikely has had a cheering effect among the automobile men, says the Motor World. A better tone is noticeable in business and conditions generally have improved.

When the first rush of news from the war center of the country indicated that orders might be issued suppressing the industry the automobile men were worried, inasmuch as any radical curtailment at once meant that their business would be curtailed to the same degree as was factory production.

Local automobile men believe the changed attitude of the war officials is due to the presentation of facts to these officials by the industry.

The war officials were shown by figures that there is no steel shortage such as would justify a curtailment order, that many factories can get along without alloy steels, that the coal mines are operating at 75 to 80 per cent of capacity, that much of the load of shipping can be taken from the railroads by driving cars from the factories, that labor and all other problems can be handled by the factories without in any way interfering with munitions manufacture. It was also shown that the industry is big enough to make both cars and munitions, meeting all problems that would arise.

Washington has also indicated that the car may not be the non-essential that it was first considered It has also stated that many non-essential industries may be permitted to continue so long as their operation does not interfere with war work. It is believed that best results will be secured if adjustment is left to work itself out in response to conditions.

The local automobile men are still somewhat dissatisfied with the opinion of some of the public regarding the motor car and its character. They say many have thoughtlessly classed it as a non-essential, whereas it is one of the most essential articles in America today.

A railroad authority has stated that the cars of America can seat more people than the railroad cars, and the motor car men assert that were it not for the automobile the burden of the railroads would be much greater than it is.

Transportation and movement from place to place is one of the greatest factors in America's life, and motor car men point out that without automobiles there would be a slowing down of civic and business life that would be injurious to the entire country.

Aside from this general condition, it is stated, something like 80 per cent of the cars are owned by farmers, who use them almost entirely for business work. A car is considered the equivalent of a team of horses and it can be run between the farm and town by a boy or girl, whereas a team generally requires a man. Also there is the obvious saving of time.

Another point that the automobile men bring out regarding all industry is that the rule should be expansion rather than contraction. By this they mean that when the war demands a certain amount of an industry's capacity that industry should be compelled to expand and carry a heavier load rather than cut down its normal business—provided this does not interfere with war work.

Expansion, they point out, will keep the dealers, stores and businesses in other than manufacturing centers going at full head, whereas a cutting down of factory production would have an adverse effect upon every town and hamlet in the country. And the towns and hamlets, with bonds and men and morale, are the big factor in the winning of the war.

woman and child in the opposing nations. The second thing is: What can we who are the heads of homes, do?

"First we must reorganize our lives, put our households on a war basis and eliminate those things which do not function in winning the war; for the business of this nation must be winning the war. We must reorganize our lives that we may have time for definite war work such as the Red Cross. The people at home will determine the outcome of this war, the fate of this nation and of the world. Never was such an opportunity for service given to a nation as has been given to America now. I call upon you to enlist, every one, for there is great need in the Red Cross to minister to a world of suffering. I believe that war is not an unmitigated evil. I believe that in this sacrifice and suffering we shall find ourselves as individuals and institutions."

Mrs. Jones testified to the spirit of service she had seen manifested by women everywhere. All the clubs, she declared are doing Red Cross work and the same thing is true of the Parent-Teacher Associations and of all women's organizations.

The program closed with a spirited rendition by Mrs. Boyer, of her beautiful medley of patriotic airs ending with the "Star Spangled Banner."

of Glendale, in order to meet our government's requirements, as nearly as possible, and at the same time being mindful of our patrons' interests, has decided to put its business on a Cash basis, thereby eliminating office and collection expenses.

To do our "Bit" along these lines we need the individual co-operation of our customers, which we herewith earnestly solicit, at the same time thanking them for their patronage during the ten years we have been in business here.

This proposed change in our system will be effective on and after January 1, 1918.

In the meantime our solicitors will call and explain the merits of our Coupon Book system for those who do not wish to pay cash on each delivery of ice.

BE DULY MODEST

To those of us who have a tendency to be overconfident of the superior ability of our soldiers there is a valuable warning in the fate of the first American skirmish detachment on the west front. The men who composed the detachment were good men, brave men, and within the limits of their experience capable men, but they became an easy prey to the German veterans of three years.

We must expect a good deal of this sort of thing at first. Every nation now in the war has had the same experience as long as its soldiers were raw recruits, and there is no innate superiority, no special God-given dash of genius with us which will magically render our men immune from the ordinary vicissitudes of battle. Until the soldiers of the republic are seasoned to modern warfare they must remain more or less in tutelage and be content to learn humbly and carefully of the French and British experts who are assisting both officers and men to become proficient in the big game. The jeers of the Germans must also be accepted with set teeth until the time comes for making the Germans laugh out of the other corners of their mouths. If in the end our troops and our officers and our artillery arrive at a degree of effectiveness comparable with the effectiveness of the French and British troops and officers and artillery, we may be very well satisfied, and any accomplishment beyond this may be considered a surplusage of excellence. We must all of us remember that we are not going across seas to show our allies anything, but to help them to the best of our ability. The more the American people develop a spirit of earnest co-operation, the better for everyone concerned.—Detroit Free Press.

THE PIG'S FOOD HABITS

We must all (says the Pall Mall Gazette) make our apologies to the pig, who has been grossly maligned in regard to his food. Instead of being ready to eat anything, he turns out to be the most fastidious of animale. Experiments have been made in France and Sweden which show this to be the case, and in the latter country the record tells us that out of 575 plants the goat eats 449 and refuses 126; the sheep out of 528 plants eats 387 and refuses 141; out of 494 plants the cow eats 276 and refuses 218; out of 474 plants the horse eats 262 and refuses 212; and the pig out of 243 plants eats 72 and refuses 171.

"William," snapped the dear lady, viciously, "didn't I hear the clock strike two as you came in?"

"You did, my dear. It started to strike ten, but I stopped it to keep from waking you up."

LA CANADA

Charles Dickens says: "I have always thought of Christmas time as a good time, a kind, forgiving, generous pleasant time, a time in which men and women and little children seem by one consent to open their hearts freely. And so I say, 'God bless Christmas.'"

Enquiry was made as to what the Children's Hospital needs for Christmas. There are seventy little ones at the hospital who hope Santa won't forget them. Some one has given a tree. Wreaths to decorate the rooms, strings of colors to trim the tree would please. Flannel night gowns, small toys, crayons, books would make many a sufferer happy.

There is to be a membership drive for Red Cross Christmas week. The dues are $1 for one year. All dues are hereafter payable at the same time. Practically every cent contributed will be used for relief work. Is there a man or woman in La Canada who is not a Red Cross member?

Our postmaster spoke Saturday evening on war savings, at the request of the Los Angeles office. "Do your bit by saving two bits," is the slogan of the war saving campaign of Southern California. Thrift stamps at 25 cents each are for sale at the Postoffice, and 16 of these make a war certificate. Mrs. H. L. Cooper has bought the first one. Dr. Shiels, of Los Angeles schools will head the campaign after the holidays.

Harland Durand was one of a team debating Lincoln at Lincoln High. The three judges gave Harland and his team mate the decision after strenuous contest. Harland by his excellent speech and smooth delivery and quickness in rebuttal was the star of the evening.

Mrs. Helen Harmon is occupying the Guidinger home.

Our enterprising Ford agent, Max Green wanted to sell a car to a party in Pasadena, which is not his territory. His agile mind scored one when he persuaded the party to move to La Canada, thus increasing the population here and selling his car. In addition, Mr. Green reports sales of new Fords to Bert Kirsch of Michigan avenue and R. E. Johns, of Palm Drive. Used Fords are sold to Clyde Shauer and George Skow.

If this list is not correct, please send in corrections or additions. There are some other men to whom we lay partial claim, Edward Jewett, Howard McMullin, Young Brown and Hubert Bentley, who has seen service at the front in France.

How about a Service Flag? We would have a fair showing of stars to place on it—a number to be proud of.

John Armstrong and family have moved to Los Angeles to be nearer the Postoffice at Temple Block, where Mr. Armstrong has work as clerk. His place which he bought from John Slutman about four years ago, he has resold to Mr. Slutman.

One of the Couts boys was disturbed the other night by someone after turkey. Before getting a chance at the thief his hat was shot from his head. The young man is a deputy constable.

It is understood that contracts have been let to complete the state highway which will connect Pasadena and San Fernando. To follow the route laid out by the Highway Commission it is necessary to acquire several strips of land for right of way. Some have been donated, on some options have been secured and some are being secured by condemnation proceedings. Effort is now being made to collect funds to meet these expenses. Contributions are expected from Pasadena which has promised aid, also from the entire territory immediately benefited. Max Green is circulating the petition in La Canada and it is hoped there will be a generous response as this completed road will be of a great benefit to our community. It is certain the Highway Commission will not complete this thoroughfare until the right of way is actually acquired. The continuity of a completed highway thus depends on every consecutive foot of the way planned.

The Library is closed on Tuesday. Christmas day and on Tuesday of the following week which is New Years day.

About 7 o'clock Wednesday evening of last week two Mexicans of Burr avenue, got into a fight. Sulino Lalgoda hit Joe Compos over the head with a bar of iron. Compos retaliated by shooting him five times, all shots taking effect. Lalgoda called for help and S. J. Green and R. S. Lea who were at Mr. Baher's responded. The man wanted Mr. Hall. The three men carried the wounded Mexican to the Glendale Sanitarium where he died on Friday. This is not Glendale territory, but the police of that place responded to the call for help Wednesday night, but Compos had disappeared. Mr. Purrier got on the job on Thursday and located Compos in Los Angeles. When arrested he confessed. Coroner's inquest was held Saturday, Juan Guterriz acting as interpreter for Mr. Purrier.

A large attendance is much desired at all church services. Will every one, young and old bring some serviceable gift which can be used for the suffering Armenians.

Our knitters number over forty and these have been complimented by the Navy League on the amount and quality of work produced. The ladies knit at home as do the Busy Fingers, but the latter meet with Mrs. Penfield every Friday afternoon. They certainly do beautiful work.

La Canada Branch of the Red Cross is in receipt of commendatory letters from the Pasadena Chapter, the inspection committee reporting on the carefully done work.

The Secretary of the Improvement Association in response to a letter written to Supervisor Dodge, received a reply from him assuring the association of his cooperation in getting prompt attention given to the condition of the road on Montrose Hill.

The Improvement Association elected officers for 1918 at the meeting Saturday night as follows:

Rev. Mr. Brooks, continued as President.
P. H. Johnson, Vice President.
Mrs. Stultz, Secretary.
H. L. Cooper, treasurer.
Mrs. Max Green, auditor.

Business being completed, a "sing" followed which was not the success it ought to have been. We will try it again, when it is hoped more will respond, or as the Quakers would say, "more would be moved by the spirit."

The Improvement Association instructed its Secretary to again remind the commission on highways of the existing conditions in the vicinity of Hilliard and Burr avenues. In June, 1916, Mr. Patch promised that this would be attended to. The volume of traffic is much greater than before paving was done and the speed of travel greatly increased, but the shoulders have not been paved nor the guard rails established. No reply has been received.

LET'S ALL MAKE THIS AN ELECTRICAL CHRISTMAS

ELECTRICAL GIFTS are useful, pleasing to the eye, reasonably priced and highly desirable. Glendale's electric rate for domestic service is the lowest in the United States.
